

The mountain on stage with Freeride Film Festival

At European Freeride Festival 2 nights of full and medium-length films about the powder world

Floating on soft powder, while the breath goes along with the body fluid movement, in a moment of suspension between air and water. Gliding, flying, becoming oxygen and hydrogen. Is it possible to live those emotions in the best big mountain riders and skiers' shoes?

Sunday the 1st and Monday the 2nd of February at Cinelux in Livigno, the explosive quiet of freeriding will be narrated through various directors' eyes during the Freeride Film Festival, in a multitude of shots and images that will take viewers' breath away, with shaking hearts. During the 2-nights, from 5.00 to 11.00 pm, 4 panels will be projected for 9 hours of pure adrenaline. The all-female movie 'Pure – Shades of Winter' will open the cinema festival with international exceptional skiers. Following titles will be: Perceptions, Days of my Youth, Sedna, Peaks Trilogy. On Monday evening the medium-length films from X-Treme Video production and Adventure Awards will be broadcasted. Full program and film descriptions are published on the official website at page www.europeanfreeridefestival.com/en/activities/freeride-film-festival.

Not only projections, but also the opportunity to talk directly to the international guests. The Freeride Film Festival will be in fact a special moment to meet impressive athletes such as Aaron Durogati, paragliding world champion and 'Peaks Trilogy' protagonist, who will open a proper cine-forum for his film projection on Sunday the 1st at 10 pm. From the Alps to the Great Wall, up and down the most important Eurasian mountains top: on Monday the 2nd of February it will be possible to meet Wang Lei, China snowboard legend, during X-Treme Video session.
